ABOUT KARNATAKA STATE OPEN UNIVERSITY

Karnataka State Open University is a State Public University introduced by the State Legislature Act in 1992, and came into force on 1st June 1996. The mission of KSOU is to cater Higher Education to Everyone, Everywhere and to reach out to those who are not able to continue their higher education through the regular mode. Hence, the University was founded to serve Open Distance Education, providing quality of higher education opportunities to all sections of the society. It also aims to encourage the Open and Distance Learning in the State.

ABOUT AUDIO-VISUAL STUDIO

The Audio-Visual Studio in Karnataka State Open University started, in 2003 under the guidance and directions of IGNOU and DEC, in the name of Gyanvani catered to the higher education students in the State. The technical help of All India Radio in producing and disseminating the education content is unforgettable. The studio strived to cater the syllabus to students till 2017. The Audio-Visual studio in the KSOU campus was one among the 27 IGNOU's Gyanvani studios across India. Now that all Gyanvani studios are inactive, the Karnataka State Open University has decided to start KSOU Radio as per UGC's 2017 Guidelines on Open and Distance Learning - Quality Assurance Guidelines of Learning Materials in Multiple Media, Curriculum and Pedagogy. The Revival and restart of 'KSOU Radio' adds to the glamour part of the University and will obviously provide the strong inputs to students' academic pursuit.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

As a cost effective and audio medium, Radio has always been the best tool of transmission of Information and Knowledge. In this era of Information and Technology it is vital for the education institutions like Karnataka State Open University to adopt, adapt and deliver the knowledge and information through audio medium.

With the strong foundation of inputs provided by Gyanvani, the Karnataka State Open University has taken a stride to help students study the lessons through Radio. In this regard, the Audio-Visual Studio of KSOU has organized a Radio workshop online, to enrich the academicians skills to produce educational content in various Radio formats for the convenience of students. Due to global pandemic Covid-19, which demands social distancing, the workshop has been organized online through KSOU Connect.

BENEFITS OF THE WORKSHOP

Any Faculty working in Government, aided, private and regular Universities are provided opportunity to deliver programs based on educational content. The program will be streamed on KSOU Radio, thereby giving an opportunity to be heard across the State. The Faculty also gets honorarium as per University guidelines.

Only Faculties who participate in workshop will be considered for delivering programs in KSOU Radio.

Faculties can write only scripts, or write scripts and also record in the studio at KSOU. The programs will be streamed and due credit will be given to the Faculty.

A certificate saying that the faculty has delivered program on educational content will be given for each program produced, which can be used for API scores in Category-II of Performance Based Appraisal System (PBAS).
