

Learner Outcomes of Master of Social work

- Abstract Knowledge about broad range of social work theories, and methods
- Shall possess Analytical and synthetic views and Eclecticism
- Ability to correlate and explain the interrelation and interconnection between social action, and social structure, social processes shaping social action, institutions and social structure
- Must be aware of and understand the ways that social work knowledge can be used across a variety of professional contexts public, private, and third sector organizations, both national and international and in groups, communities characterized by diversity in terms of culture and region